(a) Every license, both active and inactive, shall expire on a date established by the Arkansas Real Estate Commission.

(b) (1) For each active licensee, the commission shall issue a new license for each ensuing renewal period in the absence of any reason or condition that might warrant the refusal of a license, upon receipt of a written request no later than ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the license upon forms provided by the commission together with the renewal fee.

(2) (A) For any broker or salesperson who does not wish to engage in the real estate business, the license shall be renewed on inactive status, in the absence of any reason or condition that might warrant the refusal of a license, upon receipt of the written request of the applicant no later than ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the license upon forms provided by the commission together with the renewal fee.

(B) However, the commission may limit the number of renewal periods in which a license may be renewed on inactive status.

(C) The renewal fee for inactive status shall be the same as for renewal of an active license.

(3) An application for renewal filed after the date established by the commission to renew a license shall be treated as an application to renew an expired license.

(c) If any person to whom a valid license has been issued permits the license to expire for a period not in excess of that established by the commission, the commission shall issue to the person a current license without requiring the person to submit to any examination if the person furnishes such information as the commission requires, including proof of completion of appropriate continuing education requirements, and pays such fee as the commission requires.

(d) (1) New salesperson and broker licensees shall complete post-licensure education in accordance with § 17-42-303(c).

- (2) If the pocket card is unavailable, the principal broker shall promptly so notify the commission in writing.
- (e) A license inactivated under this section may be transferred to another principal broker upon application of the licensee, payment of the relevant fee, and submission of a statement that he or she is not taking any listings, management contracts, appraisals, lease agreements, or copies of any such documents or any other pertinent information belonging to the licensee's previous principal broker or firm.

(3) If, however, the executive director determines that there is sufficient proof of a violation of this chapter, the licensee shall be notified of the charges against him or her and ordered to appear for a hearing.

17-42-405. Additional fee.

(a) In addition to the other fees provided for in this chapter and regulations of the Arkansas Real Estate Commission, each licensed real estate broker and salesperson shall pay to the commission for the benefit of the Real Estate Recovery Fund a fee as the commission may require, not to exceed the lesser of:

(1) Twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per annual renewal; or

(2) An amount sufficient to restore the fund balance to two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000).

(b) Likewise, each person who becomes a licensee for the first time shall at that time pay to the commission for the benefit of the fund such fee as the commission may require, not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

(c) No fees collected under the provisions of this subchapter may be expended from the fund except for the purposes set forth in this subchapter.

17-42-406. Disciplinary hearing - Procedure.

(a) (1) In any disciplinary hearing before the Arkansas Real Estate Commission which involves any licensee who has allegedly violated any provision of this chapter or commission regulations, the commission shall first determine whether a violation has occurred.

(2) If so, the commission shall then determine the amount of damages, if any, suffered by the aggrieved party or parties. However, damages shall be limited to actual damages in accordance with § 17-42-407.

(3) The commission shall then direct the licensee to pay that amount to the aggrieved party or parties.

(4) If that amount has not been paid within thirty (30) days following entry of the commission's final order in the matter and the order has not been appealed to the circuit court, then the commission shall pay, upon request, from the Real Estate Recovery Fund to the aggrieved party or parties the amount specified. However, the commission shall not:

(A) Pay in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for any one (1) violation or continuing series of violations, regardless of the number of licensees who participated in such a violation or continuing series of violations; or

(B) Pay an amount in excess of the fund balance.

(b) The question of whether or not certain violations constitute a continuing series of violations shall be a matter solely within the discretion and judgment of the commission.

(c) Nothing within this subchapter shall obligate the fund for any amount in excess of a total of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) with respect to:

(1) The acts of any one (1) licensee; or

(2) Any group of related claims.

(d) Whether or not a claim is one (1) of a group of related claims shall be a matter solely within the discretion and judgment of the commission.

(e) When unsatisfied or pending claims are such that they exceed the limits payable under subsection (c) of this section, the commission shall be the sole determinant of how the available funds shall be allocated among such claims.

17-42-407. Jurisdiction.

(a) The Arkansas Real Estate Commission's jurisdiction and authority to award damages to an aggrieved party pursuant to § 17-42-406 is limited to actual, compensatory damages. The commission shall not award punitive or exemplary damages, nor shall it award interest on damages.

(b) Likewise, the appellate jurisdiction of the circuit court is limited to the awarding of actual, compensatory damages.

(c) The circuit court shall have no authority or jurisdiction to assess punitive or exemplary damages under this subchapter.

(d) The circuit court's jurisdiction over the Real Estate Recovery Fund shall be limited to appeals from the commission's orders.

- (2) The limits set forth in § 17-42-406.

17-42-408. Appeal.

(a) An appeal may be taken to the circuit court from a final order of the Arkansas Real Estate Commission in accordance with the Arkansas Administrative Procedure Act, § 25-15-201 et seq.

(b) An appeal shall automatically stay that portion of the commission's order which directs the payment of damages, and neither the licensee nor the commission shall be obligated to pay the damages to the aggrieved party or parties until such time as the appeal is finally decided, whether in the circuit court or in the Supreme Court.

17-42-409. Subrogation - Suspension of license.

Upon the payment by the Arkansas Real Estate Commission of any amount of money under the provisions of § 17-42-406:

(1) The recipients of the payment, to the extent of the payment, shall assign to the commission all rights and claims that they may have against the licensee involved;

(2) The commission shall be subrogated to all of the rights of the recipients of the payment, to the extent of the payment; and

(3) In addition to any other disciplinary action taken against the licensee on the merits of the hearing, his or her license shall be immediately suspended until he or she has completely reimbursed the commission for the payment, plus interest at a rate to be determined by the commission. The rate shall not exceed ten percent (10%) per annum.

17-42-410. Applicability of Acts 1997, No. 781.

The increased limits provided by § 17-42-406(a)(4)(A) shall apply only to acts or violations which occur after August 1, 1997. Any acts or violations which occur prior to that date shall continue to be governed by the previous limits of ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

This definition shall not include a property owner who may refer persons to a developer-owned subdivision provided that the owner's activities are limited to the referral of a prospective purchaser to the developer-owned subdivision and the time-share owner receives only nominal consideration which is not contingent upon the sale of a time-share interval;

(8) "Person" means one (1) or more natural persons, corporations, partnerships, associations, trusts, other entities, or any combination thereof;

(9) "Project instrument" means one (1) or more recordable documents applicable to the whole project, by whatever name denominated, containing restrictions or covenants regulating the use, occupancy, or disposition of an entire project, including any amendments to the document but excluding any law, ordinance, or governmental regulation;

(13) "Time-share estate" means an ownership or leasehold estate in property devoted to a time-share fee such as tenants in common, time-span ownership, or interval ownership, and a time-share lease;

(17) "Time-share project" means any real property that is subject to a time-share program;

(a) A time-share estate is an estate in real property and has the character and incidents of an estate in fee simple at common law. It may include an estate for years with a remainder over in fee simple or an estate for years with no remainder if a leasehold. The foregoing shall supersede any contrary rule at common law.

(b) A document transferring or encumbering a time-share estate in real property may not be rejected for recordation because of the nature or duration of that estate or interest.

(c) Each time-share estate constitutes, for purposes of title, a separate estate or interest in property, except for real property tax purposes.

18-14-105. Regulatory discrimination prohibited.

A zoning, subdivision, or other ordinance or regulation may not discriminate against the creation of time-share intervals or impose any requirement upon a time-share program which it would not impose upon a similar development under a different form of ownership.

SUBCHAPTER 2 - ADMINISTRATION AND REGISTRATION

SECTION

18-14-201. Powers and duties of state agency.

18-14-202. Registration, etc., with agency required.

However, a developer may accept a reservation together with a deposit if the deposit is placed in an escrow account with an institution having trust powers and is refundable at any time at the purchaser's option.

(2) In all cases, a reservation must require a subsequent affirmative act by the purchaser via a separate instrument to create a binding obligation.

(3) A developer may not dispose of or transfer a time-share interval while an order revoking or suspending the registration of the time-share program is in effect.

(b) (1) An acquisition agent shall register the time-share program or programs for which it is providing prospective purchasers with the agency unless there is an effective registration of the program or programs filed with the agency by the developer.

(3) The acquisition agent shall furnish evidence that a bond of five thousand dollars ($5,000) has been placed with a surety company, corporate bond acceptable to the agency, or a cash bond with the agency to cover any violations of any solicitation ordinances, zoning ordinances, building codes, or other regulations governing the use of the premises in which the time-share program is promoted.

(4) Each acquisition agent shall renew the registration at least annually and shall pay a filing fee of fifty dollars ($50.00) for the registration and each renewal thereof.

In any event, the sales agent shall be required to furnish to the agency its principal office address and telephone number and designate its responsible managing employee and any special escrow accounts set up for the deposit and collection of purchasers' funds and shall furnish such additional information as the agency may require. The sales agent shall furnish evidence that a bond of five thousand dollars ($5,000) has been placed with a surety company, corporate bond acceptable to the agency, or a cash bond with the agency to cover any defalcations of the sales agent. Each individual sales agent shall renew his or her registration annually and shall pay a filing fee of fifty dollars ($50.00) for the registration and each renewal thereof.

In any event, the managing agent shall be required to furnish to the agency its principal office address and telephone number, to designate its responsible managing employee, and to furnish such additional information as the agency may require. The managing agent shall furnish evidence that a bond of five thousand dollars ($5,000) has been placed with a surety company, corporate bond acceptable to the agency, or a cash bond with the agency to cover any default of the managing agent of his or her duties and responsibilities. When the developer registers additional time-share projects, including additional phases of existing time-share projects, with the commission, the developer shall not be required to furnish an additional bond or increase the existing bond for the additional registration provided the initial bond remains in effect.

(f) An exchange agent, including the developer if it is also the exchange agent, shall file a statement with the agency containing a list of the time-share program or programs that it is offering exchange services for, indicate its principal office address and telephone number, and designate who its responsible managing employee is or the person to whom any contact is to be made.

(g) The acquisition agent and sales agent shall each maintain their respective records of any independent contractors employed by them, their addresses, and the commissions paid for the immediately preceding two (2) calendar years.

(h) Any interest earned on any bond or substitute therefor, whether cash, certificate of deposit, bank account, security, or other instrument, while on deposit with, or for the benefit of, the agency shall become the separate property of the agency and shall be deposited in the Real Estate Recovery Fund, as created in § 17-42-403.

- (2) Arkansas Securities Act, § 23-42-101 et seq.;
- (3) Federal Interstate Land Sales Full Disclosure Act, in which the time-share program is made a part of the subdivision that is being registered; and

(4) (A) Any federal or state act which requires a federal or state agency to review a public offering statement, or similar disclosure document which is required to be distributed to purchasers, if the agency determines after review that the federal or state public offering statement is substantially equivalent to that required by this chapter and issues its certificate of exemption.

(B) Whenever a public offering statement is amended, and at least annually in any event, the public offering statement shall be submitted to the agency for its review and recertification.

(C) Applicants for certificates of exemption shall pay a filing fee of three hundred dollars ($300) and any necessary investigation expenses as set forth in § 18-14-204(d) and a fee of one hundred fifty dollars ($150) for each request for review and recertification pursuant to subdivision (a)(4)(B) of this section.

(b) No registration with the agency shall be required in the case of:

accepted accounting principles fully and fairly disclosing the current financial condition of the developer, and any documents referred to therein and such other information as may be required by the agency.

(b) If the dwelling units in the time-share project are in a condominium development or other common-interest subdivision, the application for registration shall contain evidence that the use of the units for time-share purposes is not prohibited by the project instruments and, if the project instruments do not expressly authorize time-sharing, evidence that purchasers in the condominium development or other common-interest subdivision were given at least sixty (60) days' notice in writing prior to the application for registration that the units would be used for time-share purposes. In the event the project instruments contain a prohibition against time-sharing, there must be a certification by the board of directors of the association that any procedures specified in the project instruments for the amendment of such instruments, in order to permit time-sharing, have been followed and that the project instruments have been duly amended to permit time-sharing.

(c) The application shall be accompanied by a filing fee of three hundred dollars ($300) plus five dollars ($5.00) for each twenty-five (25) time-share intervals or portions thereof. The filing fee shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500).

(d) The agency shall thoroughly investigate all matters relating to the application and may require a personal inspection of the real estate by a person or persons designated by it. All direct expenses incurred by the agency in inspecting the real estate shall be borne by the applicant, and the agency may require a deposit sufficient to cover the direct expenses prior to incurring them.

(e) All applications for registration shall be updated and renewed at least annually, and the renewal shall be accompanied by a filing fee of one-half (1/2) the amount of the original filing fee.

18-14-205. Material changes.

A developer shall amend or supplement its registration to report any material change in the information required by § 18-14-204.

(a) Except as hereinafter provided, the effective date of the registration or any amendment thereto, shall be the forty-fifth day after the filing thereof, or such earlier date as the agency may determine, having due regard to the public interest and the protection of purchasers. If any amendment to any registration is filed prior to the effective date, the registration shall be deemed to have been filed when the amendment was filed.

(b) If it appears to the agency that the application for registration, or any amendment thereto is on its face incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, the agency shall so advise the developer by listing each specific deficiency in writing prior to the date the registration would otherwise be effective. The notification shall serve to suspend the effective date of the filing until the tenth day after the developer files such additional information as the agency shall require. Any developer, upon receipt of the notice of deficiencies, may request a hearing, and the hearing shall be held within thirty (30) days of receipt of the request.

18-14-207. Regulation and use of public offering statement.

(a) The agency, at any time, may require a developer to alter or supplement the form or substance of a public offering statement to assure adequate and accurate disclosure to prospective purchasers. In order to ensure adequate protection of the purchaser through disclosure, the agency may require that certain disclosures contained in the public offering statement be placed in boldface type.

(b) The public offering statement may not be used for any promotional purposes before registration, and the statement may be used afterwards only if it is used in its entirety. No person may advertise or represent that the agency has approved or recommended the time-share program, the disclosure statement, or any of the documents contained in the application for registration.

(2) The developer shall not be required to comply with subdivision (a)(1) of this section when the agency has been furnished and is satisfied that all of the following provisions have been met:

(b) For the purpose of this section, "substantially completed" means that all amenities, furnishings, appliances, and structural components and mechanical systems of buildings on all real property dedicated to the project and subject to the project instruments are completed and provided as represented in the public offering statement, that the premises are ready for occupancy, and that the proper governmental authority has caused to be issued a certificate of occupancy.

18-14-409. Mutual rights of cancellation.

(a) Before transfer of a time-share interval, and no later than the date of any sales contract, the developer shall provide the intended transferee with a copy of the public offering statement and any amendments and supplements thereto. The contract is voidable by the purchaser until he or she has received the public offering statement. In addition, the contract is voidable by the purchaser for five (5) days after execution of the contract of sale. Cancellation is without penalty, and all payments made by the purchaser before cancellation must be refunded within a reasonable time after receipt of the notice of cancellation as provided in subsection (c) of this section.

(b) Up to five (5) days after execution of the contract of sale, the developer may cancel the contract of purchase without penalty to either party. The developer shall return all payments made and the purchaser shall return all materials received in good condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted. If the materials are not returned, the developer may deduct the cost of them and return the balance to the purchaser.

(c) If either party elects to cancel a contract pursuant to subsections (a) or (b) of this section, he or she may do so by hand-delivering notice thereof to the other party or by mailing notice thereof by prepaid United States mail to the other party or to his or her agent for service of process, which notice shall be deemed given when deposited in the United States mail.

18-14-410. Liens.

(a) Prior to the transfer of a time-share interval, the developer shall record, or furnish to the purchaser, releases of all liens affecting that time-share interval or shall provide a surety bond or insurance against the lien from a company acceptable to the agency, as provided for liens on real estate in this state; or such underlying lien document shall contain a provision wherein the lienholder subordinates its rights to that of a time-share purchaser who fully complies with all of the provisions and terms of the contract of sale.

(b) Unless a time-share interval owner or his or her predecessor in title agrees otherwise with the lienor, if a lien other than a mortgage or deed of trust becomes effective against more than one (1) time-share interval in a time-share project, any time-share interval owner is entitled to a release of his or her time-share interval from the lien upon payment of the amount of the lien attributable to his or her time-share interval. The amount of the payment must be proportionate to the ratio that the time-share interval owner's liability bears to the liabilities of all time-share interval owners whose interests are subject to the lien. Upon receipt of payment, the lienholder shall promptly deliver to the time-share interval owner a release of the lien covering that time-share interval. After payment, the managing entity may not assess or have a lien against that time-share interval for any portion of the expenses incurred in connection with that lien.

18-14-411. Financial records -- Examination.

(a) The person or entity responsible for making or collecting common expense assessments or maintenance assessments shall keep detailed financial records.

(b) All financial and other records shall be made reasonably available for examination by any time-share interval owner and his or her authorized agents.

(a) It is unlawful for any person to offer, by mail, by telephone, or in person, a prize or gift, with the intent to offer a sales presentation for a time-share project, without disclosing at the time of the offer of the prize or gift, in a clear and unequivocal manner, the intent to offer the sales presentation.
